The Holland-Springfield Journal was established in 2003 to serve Village of Holland and Springfield Township residents. Owned by Welch Publishing Company of Perrysburg, the Journal serves more than 9,500 people, providing readers with the latest information on events in their community.

"The paper connects people to each other and their community. it shows them that they and their families are important, not just to themselves but to their neighbors and friends.

The Journal and its sister newspapers strive to breathe that life into the communities they serve. Welch Publishing takes pride in continuing its tradition of excellence in the Holland/Springfield area.

If it happened in the Village of Holland and Springfield Township... read about it in the Holland-Springfield Journal.
